REIKI ME - Megan Elizabeth

I felt restrained, spiritually pained
I needed connection with my guides
I saw your hands, I was so glad
The power, no one can deny

You blew me away, what else can I say
Chi was flowing through you
Holding space for me, receiving energy
Chi was flowing through you

You came in with your crystals
I could see your aura
You laid me on the table
And then you reiki'd me
Yeah you, reiki'd me

I felt so high in my third eye
And now I'm not coming down
Sage slowly burned, my heart returned
And now my chakras are aligned

You blew me away, what else can I say
Chi was flowing through you
